Most Respected Sir,

I beg to introduce myself as the author of the Introductory Study of the Bhagavat-gītā, a copy of which has been, on the 11th Sept, sent to the Government of Mysore, craving for its usual kind patronage for the religious publication. Now I see in papers that there will be, in the near future, a change in the administration of the Mysore Government. I beg to be pardoned, if it were too much to request that the patronage of the Mysore Government may be kindly accorded to me by your kind self, before the impending change in the administration is effected.

Begging to be pardoned for the trouble given,

I have the honor to remain,
Most Respected Sir,
your most obedient servant
Swāmī Jagadīśvarānanda
